COLONIES WAIT ON WILSON

PARIS, March 8.—The mandates for administration of the German colonies and the territories of Asiatic Turkey will not be appointed among the powers by the peace conference until President Wilson returns, according to the Temps today. Prevailing opinion in conference circles, the newspaper declares, is that the United States is ready to accept prevailing opinion in conference circles, the newspaper declares, is that the United States is ready to accept a mandate for Armenia. It is exexpected that Smyrna will be allotted to Greece; the mandate for Syris, including Damasens and Alexandria, to France, and that for Mesopotamia and Palestine to Great Britain, according to this authority.

If appears likely, continues the article, that Great Britain will be given the mandate for German east Africa and that France will receive one for the greater part of the Kamerim and Togoland. Southeast Africa, according to this plan, will be joined to the Union of South Africa.

In the Pacific it seems likely, the newspaper declares, that Japan will keep the German islands north of the equator and Austrialia all the German islands south of the equator and Samon, which would be administered by New Zealand.
